LECTURE

The African Security Regime Complex

Date: 12 December 2013, 17:15

Venue: Centre for Area Studies, Thomaskirchhof 20

Speaker: Dr. Malte Brosig
(Senior Lecturer, Department of International Relations, University of Witwatersrand)

Discussant: Prof. Ulf Engel
(Institute of African Studies and Centre for Area Studies, University of Leipzig)

The presentation will focus on research findings compiled in a special issue of African Security on Africa's evolving security architecture (6/2013: The African Security Regime Complex – Exploring Actor and Policy Convergence).

It argues that security governance in Africa can be understood as an emerging regime complex that is characterized by partially converging actors such as the United Nations, European Union, African Union, African Regional Economic Communities, and single lead nations. Center stage is the analysis of converging security policies.
